Akerman Hosts Webinar on How to Navigate Non-Competes in New York

April 18, 2024

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM ET

Webinar

Akerman will host a webinar titled “Will Non-Competes in NY Sink or Swim? How to Navigate Rough Waters at the Federal, State, and Local Level.” Non-competes have gained a lot of attention in the last few years. Recent examples include: federally, being targeted by the National Labor Relations Board and the Federal Trade Commission; NY State’s broad proposal being struck down by Governor Hochul, who indicated that she is on board with a lesser ban; and another large-scale ban is pending before the New York City Council.

During this webinar, Akerman Labor and Employment Partners, Samantha Abeysekera and Genaira Tyce will lead a discussion on recent trends, possible outcomes, and employer best-practices in light of all the unanswered questions surrounding non-competes in New York.
