

Speaking Engagements

Sarah Kroll-Rosenbaum and Montaye Sigmon to Speak on the Regulatory Landscape for Locum Tenens Organizations

September 25, 2024

10:45 AM – 12:00 PM CT

Doubletree by Hilton – Austin
6505 Interstate Highway 35 North
Austin, TX

Sarah Kroll-Rosenbaum and Montaye Sigmon will speak on a session titled “Locum Tenens State Update: Navigating the Evolving Landscape” at the 2024 National Association of Locum Tenens Organizations (NALTO) Fall Fly In. The comprehensive update is designed to equip locum tenens professionals and healthcare administrators with critical insights into the dynamic state regulatory environment.

This session will focus on the following key objectives:

- Best Practices With Contracts in the State Regulation Environment:
 - Understand the complexities of state-specific regulations that impact locum tenens contracts.
 - Learn strategies for crafting robust contracts that comply with varying state laws.

Related People

Sarah Kroll-Rosenbaum
S. Montaye Sigmon

Related Work

Staffing Law

Related Offices

Austin
Los Angeles
West Palm Beach

- Explore practical tips for mitigating legal risks and ensuring compliance.
- Conversion Fees: Status in Each State and What You Need to Know:
 - Get an overview of the current status of conversion fees across different states.
 - Discover essential information on how these fees are regulated.
- Recent Changes and New Laws Passed Since the Last Conference:
 - Stay informed about the latest legislative developments affecting locum tenens practice.
 - Review significant new legislation and regulations.
 - Understand the implications of these changes for your business

Register

Click here to register for this event.